You should ensure that you have read all the attached information before you complete this form.

If there is insufficient space in any part of the form to set out relevant information, please use a supplementary sheet clearly indicating which section the additional information relates to.

The first 2 pages of this form are the only pages containing information relating to your identity, diversity and equality matters. These pages will be detached from the rest of your application before it is read and will not be seen by those selecting candidates for interview. This is to ensure anonymity and equality of opportunity when applications are screened for interview.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Cobden House Chambers conducts recruitment in strict accordance with the Bar Standards Board Rules on Equality and Diversity, as set out in the Bar Standards Board Handbook.

All Application Forms are anonymised by the removal of the first 2 pages before marking and selection. Please do not include any information within the main body of the Application Form which identifies your name, gender, ethnicity or other protected characteristic.

Similarly, please do not append any copies of your CV, certificates or letters of recommendation which may be missed at the administration stage and inadvertently passed on to the selection panel.

This is to make the selection process as fair as possible and to minimise the risk of inadvertent bias.
